- car: a motor vehicle with four wheels; usually propelled by an internal combustion engine; "he needs a car to get to work"
wordnet.princeton.edu/perl/webwn
- An automobile is a wheeled vehicle that carries its own motor. Different types of automobiles include cars, buses, trucks, and vans, with cars being the most popular by far. Older terms include horseless carriage and motor car, with motor referring to what is now usually called the engine. The act of operating an automobile is called driving. An automobile has seats for the driver and, almost without exception, one or more passengers.
